

TO HELP US STUDY

1. Where were Jesus and the apostles going? _____
2. Who did Jesus tell what would happen to him? _____
3. He would be _____ to the chief priests and teachers. They would _____ him to _____ and hand him over to the _____.
4. The Gentiles would _____ him, _____ on him, _____ him and _____ him.
5. What would happen three days later? _____
6. James and John wanted Jesus to do _____ they asked.
7. For what did James and John ask? _____
8. Jesus told them that they didn't know _____
9. What did Jesus say about who would be allowed to sit to the right or left of him?

10. Who would be great among the followers of Jesus? _____
11. Who would be first? _____
12. The Son of Man did not come to _____, but to _____, and to _____.

TO HELP US REMEMBER: Young Ones—Mark 10:44
Older Ones—Mark 10:42-44

TO CHALLENGE TEEN THOUGHT

Greatness is celebrated in many areas of life, sports, business, politics, the arts, and others. List some people from different areas that the world considers “great”. List some people that should be considered great according to Jesus' standard.

TIPS FOR TEACHING PARENTS

Play the game “King of the Hill”. Explain that everyone wants to be the king of the hill, but notice that usually only the big and strong players win. Also explain that it's easy for people to get hurt playing this game. Teach that Jesus wants us not to hurt each other, and that it's better not to play the game if it means people get hurt.

FOR ADULT STUDY: Luke 24:50; 18:31; 10:30-37; 9:48; Mark 14:36; Matthew 20:20-24; Acts 12: 2; Revelation 1:9.