

TO HELP US STUDY

1. It will be good for those servants whose master finds them _____ when he returns. (v. 37)
2. At what time will the Son of Man come? _____
3. What is the “faithful and wise manager” in charge of? (v. 42)

4. What will be done for the servant who is doing right when the master returns?

5. If the servants are not doing what is expected of them, what will happen to them?

6. What happens to the servant who knows his master’s will, yet doesn’t do it?

7. What will happen to the one who doesn’t know his master’s will and does things deserving punishment? _____
8. “From everyone who has been given _____, _____ will be demanded, and from the one who has been entrusted with _____, _____ will be asked.”

TO HELP US REMEMBER: Young Ones—Luke 12:40
Older Ones—Luke 12:47-48

TO CHALLENGE TEEN THOUGHT

Do you consider yourself one who has been “given much”?

TIPS FOR TEACHING PARENTS

Ask your children how they would prepare for a special, important guest to arrive at your house. Would they clean their room, prepare a nice meal, make a “welcome” poster? How would they feel if the guest arrived and nothing special was done to prepare for their arrival? How do we prepare for Jesus' return?

FOR ADULT STUDY: Matthew 25:4; 1 Thessalonians 5:2-6; Philippians 4:5; 1 Peter 5:4; 1 Corinthians 11:21; John 4:48; Acts 3:17; Luke 19:15.